Delivery post offices in Bombay

3528. SHRI GAYA SINGH:

SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA:

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) how many Delivery Post Offices are in Bombay City and the average number of letters and packets received by each of these Post Offices for delivery in a day;

(b) whether it is a fact that a number of letters are received every day by these Post Offices in the nature of missort delaying the delivery of letters; and

(c) if so, the average number of letters received as missort in a day and what action is taken/proposed to be taken against the officials who send these missorts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI SUKH RAM): (a) There are ninety (90) Delivery Post Offices in Bombay City and on an average they receive 17 lakhs of letter mail and 4 lakhs of packet mails in a day as per the details given in the Annexure. [See Appendix 173, Annexure No. 72]

(b) Post Offiecs do receive missorted letters for delivery but they constitute only a small proportion of total mails received for delivery in a day.

(c) The leltters are missorted either because of incomplete address or because of manual errors on the part of the sorters. The letters missorted because of manual error on the part of the sorter constitute on an average only 1.5 per cent of the total mails.

The letters received missorted at a post office are sent to the actual office of delivery immediately for inclusion in delivery next day.
